

Stringbean Memorial Bluegrass Festival

June 17.18.19 2010

"How sweet it is..."

Stringbean Memorial, Inc. is a non-profit corporation named in honor of David "Stringbean" Akemon, native of Jackson County, Kentucky, who was an internationally known musician and performer at the Grand Ole Opry and the television show, Hee Haw. The mission of Stringbean Memorial, Inc., is to organize, plan and host annual, traditional music and heritage festivals in Jackson County to honor the memory of the legendary "Stringbean"; to preserve and promote traditional Bluegrass and mountain music; to provide opportunities for area youth to explore, develop and expand their musical abilities; and to preserve, through education and demonstration, the area's cultural heritage.

Ralph Stanley II (Thurs)

Larry Stephenson (Sat)

Ronnie Bowman (Fri)

Special Consensus (Fri)

Dry Branch Fire Squad (S)

Junior Sisk (Thurs)

James King Band (Fri)

Balsam Range (Sat)

Darrell Webb (Thurs)

Phil Campbell (Thurs)

Paul Williams Band (Thurs)

Melvin Goins (Sat)

and many more.....

- Over 20 bands to perform! Schedule/list may change without notice.
- Come rain or shine! No Refunds.
- Bring your family and lawn chairs for a foot stompin' good time!
- Home cookin' concessions on grounds.
- KY Arts & Crafts.
- No alcohol or drugs permitted.

3 Day Pass: $75.00 (till May 31, 2010)

$30 per day at gate.

Camping w/electric $25 per day

Primitive Camping FREE with 3 Day Pass

For more info: 606.287.0600
stringbeanpark@hotmail.com

Jackson County, KY

Where the mountains and the bluegrass blend.

IBMA

Kentucky Friends of Bluegrass

Created using easyPDF Printer

Click here to purchase a license to remove this image